

The Right to the City!

Community College Class offered in Arlandria

Starting January 9, 2006 Sociology Course (soc 295) – The Right to the City - will be offered at the Arlandria Community Center, 3801 Mt. Vernon Avenue, Alexandria, VA. This two credit course will explore the current affordable housing crisis in Northern Virginia. The course will run for eight weeks between January 9 and March 5. The class meets from 6:30PM until 9:50PM on Mondays. Professor Victoria Rader will teach the course with help from local experts.

We will study the role of race and racism, the market, government policy and organizing. There will be weekly readings and writing assignments. High school seniors are eligible to earn college credit too – please consult your guidance counselor. All students need to be registered at Northern Virginia Community College (www.nvcc.edu). For in-state students this class will cost $142. Partial scholarships ($42) are available through the Tenants and Workers United (703.684.5697 ext.302).

Tenants and Workers United

We are a democratically controlled, grassroots organization committed to winning social and economic justice and power for the people of Northern Virginia – Latinos/as, African Americans, tenants, immigrants, workers, women, youth and low-income people
